

enhancing choral music through education and performance

PHILIP MOODY, artistic director

www.coroonline.org

CORO Members Benefits

Repertoire Databases

- In conjunction with Musica CORO members will have access to the online choral music database that allows searching of music by an incredible amount of parameters including genre, performing forces, language, composers, and more.
  - The Musica database also includes thousands of recordings of choral music and pdf images of part of the music to help in your repertoire selections.
- Access to the CORO Repertoire database that includes submitted programs from members.
  - These programs not only include the repertoire list, but members are asked to comment on the successfulness of the program in terms of preparation, performance, audience reaction, rehearsal time, level of ensemble, to name a few.
  - These programs are not intended to be duplicated, rather used as helpful guides to your own programming choices. The ability to search for pieces that you want to program to see how they been combined by other conductors is an invaluable way to explore programming possibilities.

Program Help

- We've all been in the situation of just not having the time to write program notes or find good poetic translations of some pieces.
- CORO offers program note and translation services for minimal pricing that can even be included in membership rates for reduced costs.

CORO Tracks

- CORO also provides rehearsal tracks for some of the Texas Prescribed Music List selections for their UIL choral competition. Members can receive reduced rates on all CORO Tracks.

CORO Publishing

- Members can also receive reduced rates on choral octavos from CORO Publishing.

Recorded Choral Videos

- Access to streaming video of choral music performed and recorded by the CORO Vocal Artists.
  - In association with CORO composers-in-residence as well as other contemporary composers in the choral world, new compositions composed for the CORO Vocal Artists and available through CORO Publishing will be available on the CORO website.
  - New compositions are updated on a regular basis throughout the year.
  - Videos of CORO Vocal Artist concerts will also available on the CORO website.
- Forums to discuss the videos and selections.
- These videos are also available separately with a special reduced subscriber rate for fans of choral music.